

Become a member of the My Perfect Community

When you register with My Perfect Holiday Rental you are not only becoming part of a property rental site but also of a community where you can share your interests and maybe become friends with other members across the world. When you join us you get access to the following community features:

- PMS - a private message service is available for our members.
- My Gallery - members are able to share their photos, and favorite videos from online providers such as Youtube.
- My Blog - each member can create his/her own blog.
- Shoutbox - When you are online you will be able to use the Shoutbox to have a general chat with members who are online
- Messenger Services - you are able to display your messenger status such as skype, windows, etc.

Many more features will be added as this part of this site is developed

Don't forget that community features are available to anyone who registers with us